

ABOUT ROSIE'S PLACE

Because of friends like you, Rosie's Place can provide hope and unconditional support to women struggling with homelessness and poverty. Over the past year, we:

ADVOCACY

Completed more than 14,000 visits with guests both on-site and through our Advocacy Helpline to assist guests with housing and job searches, transportation, rent and utility arrearages, health and wellness care, and critical access to recovery and mental health services. Through this work, we prevented eviction for more than 1,172 guests and helped others negotiate with utility companies to restore services or access affordable re-payment plans to avoid shutoff of services.

FOOD PROGRAMS

Served more than 62,000 nutritious meals—a 23% increase from the previous year. Our Dining Room was open 365 days with breakfast, lunch and dinner offered on-site or to-go. Our Food Pantry provided groceries to 350 women each day, triple our pre-pandemic capacity, to accommodate a record 64,000 visits.

OVERNIGHT SHELTER

Provided safe and welcoming stays to 129 guests—including some extended stays beyond the typical three weeks due to the pandemic—and helped place 27 guests in stable, permanent housing, more than double over last year.

HOUSING STABILIZATION

Supported more than 65 newly housed women and women at risk of eviction through regular home visits and frequent contact with property owners and management companies, keeping 100% of the guests served through the program housed and healthy.

LEGAL PROGRAM

Connected nearly 800 guests to legal aid and resources related to family law, immigration, housing, employment and CORI sealing through in-person visits and our Legal Helpline, including referrals for more than 400 guests to receive extended support.

WOMEN'S EDUCATION CENTER

Embraced hybrid programming with both on-site and remote instruction options, servicing 225 students in our Computer Lab, over Zoom, in on-site classes, by phone and through a Cell-Ed phone program, to support English language learning.

EMPLOYMENT SPECIALIST

Conducted more than 500 job-related visits, placing 24 women in jobs and 5 additional women in job training programs, and aided with resume and cover letter writing, online job searches, completing applications and many other work-related issues.

RECOVERY SUPPORT NAVIGATOR

Worked with more than 60 women, through one-on-one help, assisting guests with recovery and care coordination and promoting harm reduction among women with substance issues.

PUBLIC POLICY

Advocated for legislation that benefits our guest population and hosted a monthly Public Policy Council meeting with at least 10 guests to strategize how we can amplify our guests' voices and needs.
